BENVENUTO!

For the first time in 2025 the Michelin 24H SERIES is venturing onto European soil for the eagerly awaited opening race of the new European Series – the Michelin 12H MUGELLO!

With more than 40 cars expected to line-up on the grid, across five classes, excitement and the ultimate in endurance racing action are guaranteed as some of the sport's premier teams and drivers do battle under – we hope – glorious Italian sunshine.

Notably, the weekend's race turns the page to a new chapter for Creventic and the 24H SERIES as it will be the first within Europe alongside official tyre supplier Michelin.

The partnership got off to an outstanding start during the 24H SERIES Middle East Trophy in Dubai and Abu Dhabi in January, where some exceptional racing served up the perfect amuse bouche for the five event main course of the European season.

We also welcome another brand new partner ahead of the Michelin 12H MUGELLO – Omologato, the globally renowned motorsport-inspired watch brand, will debut as the Official Timing Partner of the Michelin 24H SERIES.

Having celebrated the 10th overall staging of the 12H MUGELLO last year, the 2025 instalment actually marks the 10th anniversary of the event as part of the 24H SERIES and so there will be a real celebratory feel across the weekend at the Autodromo Internazionale del Mugello.

The circuit itself is pretty much the same as it has been for the past 40 years, a track which provides a fantastic challenge for drivers and teams and one which is loved equally by the Italian race fans who we very much hope to see in their thousands across the weekend. Set in among the absolutely stunning Tuscan hills, Mugello's beauty is well-known throughout world motorsport.

As usual, the Michelin 12H MUGELLO race action will be split into two equal parts – six hours will be contested on Saturday, 22 March, with the concluding portion following after an overnight break on Sunday, 23 March.

Whether you're watching trackside, following the first class live coverage online through YouTube or indeed the official www.24hseries.com website, all at Creventic welcome you to, what we firmly expect to be, an outstanding Michelin 12H MUGELLO and a memorable 2025 European season!

Behind Garage Doors

with Joe Bradley

Motorsport in Tuscany has a long and vibrant history. This region of Italy has a clear passion for speed and engineering. Tuscany is known for its rolling hills and scenic landscapes, became a hub for motor sports on both two and four wheels in the early 20th century.

The first notable event to take place in Tuscany was the Coppa della Consuma in 1921, a prestigious hill climb race held on the winding roads of the Consuma Pass. This was the beginning of Tuscany's involvement in competition motor sports. In the following decades the region continued to host various races including car rallies and motor cycle races.

Perhaps the defining moment came in the 1950's with the creation of the Mugello race track, nestled in the Tuscan hills this circuit now known as the Autodromo Internazionale del Mugello, became a key venue for international motor races, including formula 1 testing and Moto GP. This circuit however has become the home of the first round of the 24H Series European Championship with the 12 Hours of Mugello. Split over two days the race has become quite the challenge for our teams and drivers.

As much as the Mugello circuit has become known for its both stunning and challenging layout since 1974, the Mugello 12 Hours has carved out its own legacy as an exciting event on our calendar. Especially popular with the families of the teams and drivers with an early Springtime in Tuscany, always an attractive proposition.

The first official Mugello 12 Hours took place in 2012 with the added complexity of a long distance motor race ran over two days. Up and down the pitlane we find a multitude of opinions of how to get the best out of this event strategically. For me this just adds to the inevitable soap opera behind every garage door.

The 2025 Season of the 24H Series will be the same as previous seasons insofar as success will come down to these six elements. Car preparation, consistent driving, efficient pit stops, teamwork, fuel and tyre management and perhaps the most important one Adaptability. we can start a long distance motor race with a clearly defined plan and usually that plan is torn up and in the bin by about lap three.

This is why we love it though, the unpredictability of any sport is the biggest attraction for fans, but when its drawn out over twelve hours this is exacerbated somewhat. There is something right about starting our season at Mugello, I feel this is because of the history of the place and the motorsport mad tifosi. Tuscany remains a prominent location for motorsport enthusiasts, with its scenic roads and world-class race tracks. The history of motorsport in Tuscany is a testament to the region's deep love for both automobiles and racing, continuing to inspire future generations of drivers and fans and the 24H Series I feel is very much a part of this.

The faces behind the 24H SERIES live stream

Meet 0221 Mediagroup, the broadcasting partner of the 24H SERIES for almost 10 years.

Together with the 24H SERIES we have evolved and have grown into experts of live motorsport coverage. Grown into experts of the racetrack, but in a completely different way than each driver and team member knows it.

It all started with on race a year, the 24H DUBAI, and the moment CREVENTIC added more races and the 24H SERIES grew; our partnership began. Our coverage expanded over the years and we proudly added 'F1 quality' RF Onboard cameras to our specialties.

Together with Radio Show Limited we are making sure the world can follow LIVE what is happening on track. You can not only find us at the racetracks but also at festivals, concerts, sport events like basketball or rowing and other exciting public events. Besides these events we also cover studio productions and green screen production which includes virtual reality and digital worlds. We offer the complete package and will make each production a success, small or big.

Are you looking for a solution to reach an audience (fans, customers, partners, employees)? Reach out to us, maybe we can help.

But first: we race.

We wish everyone an exciting and fun race, hoping that this is the start of a good season.

Stay safe!
