MB Racing wants drivers for European GT4 races MB Racing now offers a unique opportunity to participate in endurance races in Europe sharing a Mercedes-Benz GT4 with Danish race aces Jan Magnussen and Ronnie Bremer. MB Racing is a Danish motorsport team founded 2019 by Jan Magnussen and Ronnie Bremer. The team is run by profiles with many years of experience in both Danish and international motorsport. Jan Magnussen is a four time Le Mans winner, winner of 12 Hours of Sebring and winner of the 24 Hours of Daytona. Ronnie Bremer is a former Champ Car driver and a very successful touring car and GT driver. MB Racing is a Mercedes-AMG Customer Racing team. The team operates from Copenhagen with a high professional and well experienced crew of engineers and mechanics – and a brand new, race ready and fully updated Mercedes-AMG GT4. MB Racing provides a complete pay-and-drive package, which includes training and preparation behind the wheel of the team's own professional racing simulator. In the simulator, the drivers undergo a full course of training and get the chance to participate in a virtual long distance race. MB Racing also assists the drivers with everything from finding the right equipment, physical training and diet, transport and accommodation as needed.
